the tone was buoyant. Prices closed at the top mark of the day. Bond market was quiet and firm.

There was general comment on the floor that there has been a stronger undertone than has been noted in a long time. Buying orders for Erie, Union Pacific, Reading, and other leading stocks were in the market, and the price limits on these orders were advanced steadily in order to obtain stock. The room had a report that Lazard Freres had engaged $1,000,000 gold, but the report was denied. The firm will probably buy freely any fresh arrivals of South African gold in London.

The price movements all through the first hour were toward higher prices. London arbitragers soid steel, Atchison, Chesapeake and Ohio and Southern railway.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Sept. 16.—James Scott, colored, driver for D. W. Aitcheson, while driving on King street this morning, was struck at the corner of Lee street by a falling trolley pole and knocked under his cart and seriously injured. He was taken to the Alexandria Hospital for treatment.

FINED THE WITNESSES.

In the police court this morning, with Justice Caton presiding, a case came up for trial, where the accused was present, but not the prosecuting witnesses. The justice dismissed the accused and ordered a fine to be placed against the witnesses.

EATHER BELT SAVED HIM.

The principal case before Police Justice Caton this morning was that of John Jordan, colored, charged with cutting Ed Williams, also colored. According to Jordan's statement he drank four gills of whisky at Williams' expense, and then Williams got angry because he did not drink an additional half pint, Williams, however, stated that without provocation Jordan stabbed at him viclously with a knife, but, fortunately, a leather belt saved him from injury.
